

Teachers' Retirement System Investment Officer 3 NY State Teachers' Retirement System

One of the 10 largest public pension systems in the nation seeks experienced professional buy- side trader. A Bachelor's degree and eight (8) years investment-related experience either directly engaged in, or in support of, trading and/or portfolio management activities with demonstrated knowledge of financial markets, including experience analyzing financial data, five (5) years of which must have been conducting daily equity trading activities for clients with equity assets of at least $10 billion in an electronic equity trading environment. Two (2) years of the specialized trading experience must be on the buy-side. The trading experience must include developing and executing optimal trading strategies in an agency capacity, utilizing algorithmic and program trading solutions. Excellent benefits. For additional information, send name and address to cblack@nysters.state.ny.us.